Intro

Why is it important to cut out the noise when there is a constant narrative of who you should be?

Despite the success, it's easy to fall into the trap of addiction while being plagued with fear.

Addiction is like an allergy and this is the reason why.

It came down to choosing between life and death, and a choice had to be made.

Service is a pillar in the recovery community.

The darkness is always there and it can creep at you anytime.

When you mistake the numbness you feel as peace and then find a more sustainable way to experience inner peace.

Macklemore shares what it felt during his near death experiences.

Sometimes a supportive partner is all you need to pull yourself out of the rut.

Rediscover who you are as a person and different ways to accomplish this.

How do we 'normally' size people up or gauge success?

Think Out Loud - how Jay started how mission to make wisdom go viral

Macklemore answers the question, "How would you define success now?"

Authentic art cannot be manufactured because you can't fake authenticity.

Setting goals to help change yourself and lead a better path in life.
